

SCROLLS FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

The Fifth Colloquium for Calvin Studies presented four scrolls for distinguished service. The scrolls were signed by members of the colloquium and framed in oak and walnut grown at Davidson.

John Newton Thomas
Nancy White Thomas

The members of the Fifth Colloquium on Calvin Studies, Davidson College and Davidson Presbyterian Church, January 19-20, 1990, are proud to record their appreciation for the generosity of John Newton Thomas, churchman, preacher, and Reformed theologian, and of Nancy White Thomas, church school teacher and friend of prisoners, in supporting Calvin studies.

Edward A. Dowey

The members of the Fifth Colloquium on Calvin Studies, Davidson College and Davidson Presbyterian Church, January 19-20, 1990, are proud to record their appreciation for Edward A. Dowey, whose distinguished contributions as a writer, teacher, director of graduate studies, and theologian helped to revive Calvin studies.

William F. Keesecker

The members of the Fifth Colloquium on Calvin Studies, Davidson College and Davidson Presbyterian Church, January 19-20, 1990, are proud to record their appreciation for William F. Keesecker, a devoted student of Calvin, who through his energetic personality and his work as a churchman, preacher, and advocate of Calvin studies has contributed to the colloquiums and to the publication of Calvin's writings.

John Nichols

The members of the Fifth Colloquium on Calvin Studies, Davidson College and Davidson Presbyterian Church, January 19-20, 1990, are proud to record their appreciation for John Nichols, Presbyterian elder, businessman, and philanthropist, whose generosity has made possible significant publications in English of Calvin's writings.

Brian Armstrong congratulating Edward A. Dowey; seated, John Newton Thomas, and Missy Kuykendall

Benjamin W. Farley making presentation to William F. Keesecker; seated, John Kuykendall

Alexander Evans reading scroll in honor of John Nichols

Richard Ray presenting scroll to John Newton Thomas;
seated, Missy Kuykendall

Group picture at Saturday morning break

Brian Armstrong, Elsie McKee, William Keesecker, Edward Dowey, John Leith

Robert and Dani Lawrence, Sally and David Willis-Watkins

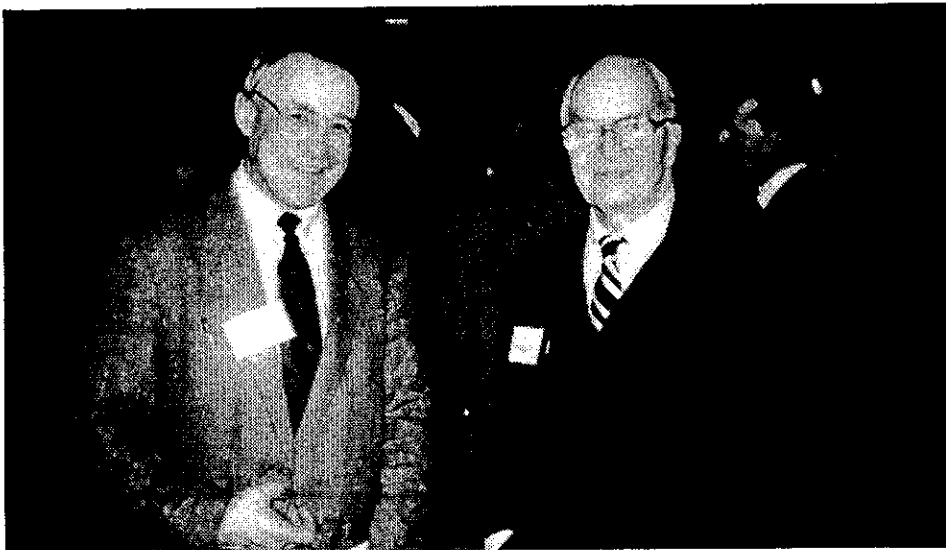

William F. Keesecker and Brian Armstrong

Elsie McKee, Timothy George

William Keesecker, Wilhelm Neuser, Mary Beaty, Edward A. Dowey, John Kuykendall

William Klempa, Thomas Torrance

Charles Partee, Wilhelm Neuser, John Hesselink,