

FOUNDATION FOR REFORMED THEOLOGY

SEMINARS FOR 2007

The Foundation sponsored nine ministerial study seminars in 2007. They read eight different topics and met at five different institutions in five different states. They are listed here alphabetically by the names of the leaders.

Blakely, July 30–August 2, 2007, Montreat Conference Center, Montreat, North Carolina
First Seminar: John Haddon Leith

Bohler, May 7–11, 2007, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey
Option XIV: Jonathan Edwards: The Religious Affections

Cottrell, April 30–May 4, 2007, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
Option XXIII: Forgiveness

Evans & McLeod, April 16–20, 2007, Montreat Conference Center, Montreat, North Carolina
Option XXIV: Revelation

Farley, February 5–9, 2007, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California
Option XIV: Jonathan Edwards: The Religious Affections

Garlington, May 7–11, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey
Option XVIII: The Christian Life

Goodloe, March 19–23, 2007, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey
Option XXXI: John Calvin, Selected Readings

Rissmiller, March 12–16, 2007, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia
Option XXXII: Eschatology

Williamson, February 26–March 2, 2007, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia
Option II: The Reformed Doctrine of the Holy Spirit